DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Office Action is responsive to the Amendment dated 1/24/07.
2. The Amendment date 1/24/07 successfully overcomes the rejections set forth in paragraphs 1 and 3-9 of the Office Action mailed 10/24/06. Accordingly, these rejections are withdrawn.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 and 4-18 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-19 of U.S. Patent No. 7,179,510

Art Unit: 1756

(US '510) for the reasons of record as set forth in paragraph 2 of the Office Action mailed 10/24/06, and as further discussed below.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 1/24/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With respect to the provisional obvious double patenting rejection over 10/825,657, which has been updated to reflect that this copending application has issued as US 7,179,510 (see above), Applicant argues that while the copending application claims a method for forming a liquid crystal display in which fine particles of metal are dispersed in a binder, none of claims 1-9 or 11-20 of the '657 application [now claims 1-19 of US 7,179,510] disclose or suggest a color composition comprising silver microparticles having an average particle diameter of 60 to 250 nm. However, in the claims of US '510, a light-shielding layer is formed by coating a substrate with a coating liquid containing fine metal particles, wherein the fine metal particles are specifically claimed as fine particles of silver (see claims 8, 9, 17 and 19), having an average particle diameter of 1 to 3000 nm (see claims 1, 13 and 18), preferably 10 to 250 nm (see claim 10).

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1756

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
